

REPRESENTATIVE AND SPEAKER PRO-TEM

Larry Clark

Louisville's influential voice of leadership in Frankfort

Representative Larry Clark has been on the job for the people of Louisville's 46th District and serves as Speaker Pro Tem in the Kentucky House of Representatives. Known to many as the "jobs legislator", Larry Clark has sponsored and passed economic development legislation critical to our region that has secured skilled jobs, strengthened our schools and universities and protected the citizens of Kentucky.

Demanding a fiscally responsible government, Larry Clark always has a seat at the table when budgets and road plans are decided. Whether it is for small business, education, children or seniors, people know they can count on Larry Clark to put their interests ahead of partisan politics. He is a strong leader who stands up for working families and the interests of all Kentuckians.
