

Legislative Citations

Submitted by Representative Larry Clark

The House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Kentucky hereby offers its sincerest congratulations to ««Robley Rex»»

upon his

100th Birthday

~Born May 2, 1901~

In celebration of this memorable event, the entire membership is pleased to join Representative Larry Clark in commending Mr. Rex for a life lived to the fullest and for the vitality of heart which has brought him thus far. An honorable veteran of the United States Army who served his country with great distinction during World War I, this esteemed honoree is further honored for the many and generous contributions he continues to make on behalf of veterans through his devoted service to the Louisville Veterans Affairs Medical Center, where he serves as a greeter, transports medical documents and visits with those who are hospitalized; as the VA voluntary service representative for the Veterans of World War I of the USA; as the 3rd District commander for the Disabled American Veterans Department of Kentucky and as the treasurer and minister in a local DAV chapter. Having given countless hours of his time and talents since 1985 to working on behalf of his fellow citizens, Robley Rex is commended for his superior record of volunteer service and is hereby extended the best wishes of this distinguished body on the meaningful occasion of his 100th birthday.

Citation of Adjournment

The House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Kentucky hereby adjourns this legislative day in honor of

Robley Rex

and pays tribute to this remarkably generous 103 year-old citizen, a veteran of the World War I era who served in both France and Germany and who is one of the few remaining survivors of that war; and, a former railway postal clerk who, though he has not had a salaried job for fifty years, did free income tax returns for twenty years and continues to serve as a volunteer at the Veteran's Hospital three days a week, helping with medical charts and other duties. Inasmuch as the strength of our communities depend, in great measure, on those who are willing to give of those personal offerings that will make a positive difference in the lives of others, the entire membership of this honorable body is delighted to join with Representative Larry Clark in expressing sincere gratitude to Robley Rex for the many contributions he has made to his community, the Commonwealth and this Nation and in extending to him warmest wishes on this meaningful occasion.